FAMOUS DANCER BORN IN NOVEMBER

Eleanor Powell

Born November 21, 1912 in
Springfield, MA

Eleanor Powell, known as the "Queen of Tap Dancing", was one of MGM's top dancing stars during the 1930s and 40s. Eleanor's mom had sent her to dance lessons at age 11 to help combat her shyness. Her training in in dance and tumble helped her to develop a dance style that fused her ballet, tap and acrobatic abilities; she choreographed all of her own solo numbers. Eleanor danced with Fred Astaire in "Begin the Beguine", which is considered by many to be one of the greatest tap sequences in film history. She was one of the only leading ladies in the Golden Age of Hollywood who was not secondary to her male costars and was heavily involved in the post production and editing process of her musical numbers.
